RALPH ROSE BREAKS RECORD

IRISH-AMERICAN CLUB WINS CHAMPIONSHIP

Olympic Athletes Finish
Fourth in New Orleans Big Meet—Hurdle Race Was Fast.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 15.—Standing of contestants in annual senior champions Amateur Athletic Union Irish-American Athletic Club, New York, 49 points.

New York Athletic Club, 48. Chicago Athletic Association, 18. Olympic Athletic Club, San Francisco, 9.

New American record: Throwing the javelin, 163 feet 1 inch, made by Bruno Brodd of the Irish-American Athletic Club, New York.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 15.—Ralph Rose of the San Francisco Olympic Athletic Club was a pronounced feature in the championship series of the American Athletic Union meet at Tulane University stadium this afternoon. He won the sixteen-pound shot event, making 49 feet 1 inch, was third in the javelin throwing, third in the discus throwing and third in the sixteen-pound hammer event.

In winning the shot event Rose broke the Southern record of 44 feet 3.5 inches, made by J. J. Elliott of New York yesterday.

An accident that befell Leland Scott of the Olympic Athletic Club was a great disappointment to the Pacific Coast contingent, for, after vaulting 11 feet 9 inches in the pole vault event, he was forced to withdraw because of having strained a muscle around his heart the day before. It had been expected that he would easily make 14 feet, his record on the Coast.

In the 100-yard dash Waldo Throop of the University of Southern California, at Los Angeles, had been touted as a sure winner, but owing to a false start he was set back two yards, with which handicap he came in fourth.

Through the disqualifying of H. Hartrauf of the New York Athletic Club in the 120-yard high hurdles and the losing of three points, which second place would have given him, that organization lost the national championship of the Amateur Athletic Union.

The final score for the first three places was: Irish-American, New York, 49 points; New York Athletic Club, 48 points; Chicago Athletic Association, 18 points.

100-yard dash—Won by J. M. Rosenberger, Irish-American A. C., New York; F. V. Bellot, Irish-American A. C., Chicago, second; W. C. Martin, Seattle, third. Time, 0:10 1-5.

220-yard dash, final—Won by Gwyn Henry (unattached), Eden, Texas; Robert Cloughen, Irish-American A. C., New York, second; F. H. Blair, Chicago A. A., third. Time, 0:22 3-5.

440-yard run—Won by W. Hayes, St. Gregory A. C., Philadelphia; E. J. Lindberg, Chicago A. A., second; R. T. Edwards, New York A. C., third. Time, 0:52.

880-yard run—Won by P. Gissling, New York A. C., by two feet; Melvin Sheppard, Irish-American A. C., New York, second. Time, 2:01 4-5.

One mile run—Won by J. W. Monument, Irish-American A. C., New York; A. R. Klavett, Irish-American A. C., New York, second; O. F. Hedlung, Brooklyn G. C., Mass., third. Time, 4:31. This breaks the Southern record of 4:38 2-5.

Five-mile run—Won by W. J. Kraemer, Independent, New York; F. G. Heller, New York A. C., second. Time, 27:06 2-5. This breaks the Southern record of 28:19 1-5.

120-yard high hurdles—Won by J. Case, Illinois A. C., Chicago; J. J. Eller, Irish-American A. C., New York; second; J. Donahue, Olympic A. C., San Francisco, third. Time, 0:15 4-5. Breaks Southern record, 0:16 1-5.

220-yard low hurdles—Won by J. J. Eller, Irish-American A. C., New York; J. Hartnett, New York A. C., second; P. C. Walter, Chicago A. A., third. Time, 0:25 1-5. Breaks the Southern record, 0:26.

Pole vault for height—Won by H. Babcock, New York A. C., 12 feet 1 inch; Eugene Schobinger, Chicago A. A., second, 12 feet; E. H. Schroth, R. M. G. C., New Orleans, third, 11 feet 10 inches. Breaks Southern record of 11 feet 5 1-2 inches.

DOTS AND DASHES.

There will be a meeting of the Honolulu Yacht Club tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, and plans for a race in which the youngsters will handle the large yachts will be made. The Charlotte C. Kamehameha, Gladys and Helene will probably be handled by the kids, and they should do well, as they have been well trained at the game.

On Sunday night, at the rink, Soldier King will run a race against Hau, Jackson and Hayes. The man from the mainland will run six miles while the trio covers five.

James H. Fiddes, the well-known golfer, cricketer and football player, returned on the Sierra this morning after a four-month vacation which was spent in Scotland.

HOW CHAMPION WAS KILLED

TROUBLE OVER HORSE AND WOMAN CAUSE

Stanley Had No Chance for His Life and Was Murdered in Cold Blood—Posse After Assassin.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Oct. 15.—Stanley Ketchel, champion middleweight pugilist, was shot and fatally wounded early this morning by Walter A. Hurtz, an employee on the farm of R. P. Dickerson, a friend of Ketchel, five miles north of Conway, Mo., where Ketchel had been since Tuesday for recreation.

An hour before he died Ketchel regained consciousness, but his condition soon took a decided change for the worse. The pugilist died in the Springfield Hospital, to which he had been rushed from Conway on a special train, chartered by Dickerson. Three physicians were on the special.

An operation was performed at the farmhouse in an unsuccessful attempt to locate the bullet. A report from Conway has it that a 22-caliber rifle bullet, the pattern which indicated Ketchel's wound, was found on the floor of the room in which the shooting took place.

The trouble between Ketchel and Hurtz is said to have started when the pugilist upbraided the ranch hand for beating a horse. This angered Hurtz. The incident took place yesterday. Ketchel had come down to the ranch, which adjoins one he recently purchased, to spend a few days. Hurtz thought Ketchel was going beyond the province of a visitor to take him to task for abuse of the animal.

Mrs. Smith, in a statement tonight, assigned another cause for the shooting. "While I was working in the house yesterday," she said, "Ketchel insulted me. I became angry. He was greatly wrought up over the incident and pleaded with me not to say anything to Hurtz about our conversation. He said he would give me the best team of horses on the farm if I would keep quiet. I made him no promise."

"When Hurtz came home I told him what Ketchel had said to me. He was very angry. I think that is what caused him to kill Ketchel."

The officers believe Mrs. Smith's story, although they think this was not the only reason for harsh feeling between the men. After telling her story, Mrs. Smith admitted that Hurtz had promised to meet her tonight. She took several policemen and county officials to the appointed meeting place to await the arrival of the slayer.

Mrs. Smith says she is a daughter of Andrew Bright, a Christian country, Mo., farmer. She says she met Hurtz about a month ago. Receipts in Mrs. Smith's purse show that she recently bought merchandise in Coffeyville, Kan. She says she conducted a rooming-house there.

It was Ketchel's custom while staying at the ranch house to sit at meals with his face toward a door leading into the house, the dining-room being built in an old porch. This morning his place at the table was changed, some say by Mrs. Smith, and the pugilist was seated with his back to the door.

Suddenly Hurtz came through the door with a rifle in his hands and aimed to Ketchel: "Throw up your hands."

Ketchel, not realizing the serious nature of the situation, started and started to arise and turn toward Hurtz. Before he turned completely around Hurtz fired. The ball entered Ketchel's body below the right shoulder, coursed upward and entered the lung. Ketchel fell to the floor. The nearest physician was at Conway. It was forty-five minutes before he arrived. It was hours before the special train arrived from here. By that time Ketchel was in bad shape. Soon after the shooting Ketchel lost consciousness, but not before he had said that Hurtz had shot him.

For more than a month Ketchel had been in this part of the country. Weakened by the fast life he had led since his defeat by Jack Johnson in San Francisco, the fighter bade farewell to his manager, Wilcox Mauer, and the bright lights of New York, and came here this and pallid, to recuperate. Long days in the country and nights of wholesome sleep seemed to put new life into his veins. He bade fair to "come back," and resume his place at the top of the middleweight division.

It was his greatest desire to take on weight enough to be able to meet Jack Johnson and retrieve his former defeat, and he thought he would be able to do it. His friends were surprised at the sudden improvement in his condition.

Even after he was shot, physicians hoped his great strength would carry him through. The dead pugilist's real name was Stanislaus Kieck. He was born in Grand Rapids, Mich., September 14, 1887, and was therefore but little more than 23 years old. His parents are still living in Michigan, where he had bought property for them. Tomorrow would have been the first anniversary of his fight with Jack Johnson, his last important ring engagement.

Friends of the dead fighter say he was robbed either before or after he was shot. When he went to the Dickerson ranch he carried about $500 in cash with him. There was no money in his pockets when assistance first reached him after he had been shot.

SOLDIER KING TAKEN ILL WHILE RUNNING

Had Covered Six Miles When He Collapsed.

Many people have remarked that Soldier King would find that the climate of Hawaii would "get him" before long. Judging from the way he collapsed on the Athletic Park track yesterday afternoon, after covering seven miles, it would appear as if the croakers were correct.

King ran as well as usual for five miles, which he covered in 29:52, and then continued till he had cut out six miles in 35:32. It was at the start of the seventh mile that King suddenly was taken with cramps, or some stomach trouble, and had to quit. He was O. K. last night and thinks the illness was only a passing affair. Kao's backers rather figure it out that the old Waiialua Horse will make the pace so solid that King will be run off his legs. That may happen, as no one knows what Kao can really do when pushed to his utmost speed and endurance.

This afternoon King will run at the Athletic Park, and he will start work at 3:15. Kao will do his work on the Boys' Field track, and Bill Rice will attend to him.
